

Greetings!

Would you like to offer your Christian organization an unforgettable trip of a lifetime? Our many partners share with us over and over that these rare moments are some of the best in their year. That much-needed pause from the relentless and never-ending list of things to do really does allow you to get away with God—and it gives your travelers a chance to know you in a more personal and intimate setting. God moves in these special times.

Even if you've traveled recently, are you ready for a fresh, new experience? Perhaps you've dreamed of leading a group through the Holy Land, or viewing the majesty of God's creation in the Alaskan wilds. Maybe you long to relax with family and friends on the white sand of a Caribbean beach. If you're dreaming of a Christian cruise or tour, we can make it happen; we'll handle all the details. All you need is Inspiration.

Our expert team specializes in exceptional travel experiences for Christian groups. We promise to manage everything including, promotions, reservations, payments and every detail en route—so you can focus on your group and share in the most amazing event of your year.

From start to finish we ensure your every need is met, and the national ministries we serve return year after year for our unparalleled service and care for others. Many have even offered to share their testimony with prospective clients. A list of just a few of these Christian organizations is included, followed by a page highlighting the expert qualities that make Inspiration so unique.

We would love to help you set your travel event dreams in motion. Please call us today at 888 646 4789 so we can assist in planning your Exceptional Travel Experience.

Faithfully,

Reasons to Travel With Inspiration

We're experts. With over 30 years of experience we have logistics down to a science.

We care. Our passion is partnering with ministry leaders to prepare once-in-a-lifetime experiences. We work extra hard, and are on call any time for any concern or question, so you can focus on sharing, ministering and experiencing God with your group.

We triple-check details. Exceptional travels are built on more than booked flights and hotel reservations. Our travel experts scrutinize each component of every schedule and detail to anticipate your needs and ensure that your event is first-class in every way.

We're mindful of your finances. As seasoned travel advisers we weigh all the options and work with your preferences to develop a budget that matches your needs or earns you income for your ministry.

We uphold your brand. Our team of creative experts work with you to produce professionally designed promotional materials. We'll use your branding, promote you to our lists and provide you with our design files.

We make booking easy. The friendly and knowledgeable reservation coordinators in our call center and our online booking website work to ensure that your travelers have all the help they need to make travel decisions and booking reservations whenever they're ready.

We're trustworthy. With no hidden fees or unexpected extras you and your travelers are safe from unwanted travel costs. You always have access to account financials and can see where your money is at any time. We serve you with complete transparency.

We travel with you. Our travel coordinators are available on your trip night or day for ministry and traveler needs. We don't just go the extra mile; we go the whole way with you until you're safely home.

Call or email us today to find out how we can help you create a truly exceptional cruise or tour experience.

I just can't say enough about Inspiration Cruises & Tours. These guys are meticulous in what they do. They give great attention to detail—it's a first-class operation. So if you're thinking of taking a tour to Israel as a Pastor, I would ask you to check these guys out.

I don't know of anybody that can take that many people, you know. When we go we've got about 30-40 artists, and the artists all say, "Man, you talk about details; they do it better than anybody else out there." Steve is a wonderful friend and it's been a joy doing business with him for these—what—last 30 years or so, and we always look forward to cruises with Inspiration, whether it's the Caribbean or Alaska or around the world, they're the best!
